

A Man of 1776.—In the war of the Revolution, Henry Peyton of Virginia, lost three sons. When the intelligence was brought to him that his third and last son was slain, he walked from the messenger agonized with grief, but suddenly, stifling his emotions, he turned and said, "Sir, much as I deplore the loss of my poor boy, I would to God I had another to supply his place, though he likewise perished in the cause of his country."

An eloquent minister of the Gospel paused in the middle of his sermon, and remarked: "If I were at home, (meaning his own church,) I would say something about going to sleep, but as I am not, I forbear."

In an instant, heads, which had been quietly resting on the adjacent pews, straightened up with military precision. The preacher concluded his remarks without further annoyance.

Mormon Progress.—The progress of the Mormons is like the gathering snow ball. Mr. Taylor, one of the Mormon missionaries sent out from the Salt Lake Valley, writes from Europe that two large establishments are fitting out in London for the city of Salt Lake. One comes out for the purpose of manufacturing broad and other cloths, merinos, alpaca, and other fabrics of that description, together with shawls, blankets, flannels, &c. The other establishment spoken of comes out for the purpose of manufacturing sugar from the beet root, on the same principle as in France. These will require a great deal of machinery, which is contemplated to bring out together with men to work it, the object being to manufacture everything to be required in the valley, so as not to be necessitated to purchase it elsewhere.

RUNAWAY from the Subscribers, a negro man named PETER. He is of a dark copper color, medium height, about 40 years of age, slightly grey, and somewhat disabled in his right hand; he had on when he left a blue homespur jacket and a black wool hat. He arrived from Richmond Va. on the 12th, and absconded on the 14th inst., and is no doubt making his way back to Virginia. A suitable reward will be paid for his apprehension and judgment in any Jail in the State, so that we can get him, and all necessary expenses paid, if delivered to us in Charleston. $100 Reward.

THE above reward will be given for the delivery to me at my Plantation in Lancaster District, S. C., a Slave named HOBBS, about 20 years old, a very bright mulatto with straight hair, some freckles about his nose, the top of one of his ears has been cut off, I think the left one—white eyes and light hair. He is about 5 feet 5 1/2 inches high, straight built, well dressed; weighs about 140 lbs., can read tolerable well. No doubt he will try to pass himself as a white man. He left my plantation on the 27th Inst., has a black dog half hound which follows him.

The above reward will be paid as above stated, or Fifty Dollars will be given if he is lodged in any Jail in the United States, so that I can get him. Given under my hand and seal this 29th May, 1851. P. T. HAMMOND.

P. S. No doubt but the Boy will attempt to get to a free country, perhaps via Charleston on Rail Road or Steamboat.

The Charleston Mercury, the Richmond Examiner, the Southern Press, and Raleigh Register N. C., will please copy the above three times in some conspicuous place in their several papers, and forward me a copy of the same, together with their accounts for payment at Lancasterville S. C.
